Some Things You Know and Some You Don't Know About Our Towns, County & People

Have you done your Christmas shopping yet?

The decorations and toys in the stores remind us that Christmas is near.

Only eleven more days before Christmas, and Pickens is the place to get your Christmas supplies.

Don't forget Buster Brown and Tige will give a free performance at the Big Store on the 20th.

We apologize for the scarcity of reading matter in this issue. Advertisements and job work poured in on us, and there was no dodging it.

An interesting communication about the Sunday school convention at Liberty is crowded out this week. It will appear in our next issue.

Twenty-five bales of cotton were burned on the platform at Liberty last Friday, supposed to have caught from a spark of a passing engine.

The Pickens Cornet Band is putting in good time practicing. They are making great progress and will soon be ready for a public concert.

Mrs. Rebecca Masters, widow of the late John Masters, died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. J. R. Keith, on the morning of the 11th inst. She was about 75 years old.

Out of an appropriation of $20,000 from the state treasury for aid to high schools in the state, the following is Pickens county's share: Central, $500; Liberty, $500; Pickens, $500.

On the afternoon of Dec. 15th the Daughters will have a sale of articles suitable for Christmas gifts in the Freeman building. This will be a rare opportunity to get something nice and pretty.

"Comes for a Day in the Union Depot," the play given by the U. D. C. last Friday evening, was a roaring success. It was well rendered by the finest of amateur talent. The door receipts were $40.

The Farmers Bank at Central is in a very prosperous condition. Under the excellent management of its officers in the five years it has been in business, $8,000 has been paid out in dividends, and they have now $3,500 to their profit account.

Messrs. J. E. Parsons and J. R. Ashmore have bought the stock of goods of the Keowee Supply Company and will continue business. We call attention to their advertisement in this issue and bespeak for them a liberal patronage.

The Pickens Chapter U. D. C. will be at home to their friends on Friday afternoon, Dec. 15, from 3:30 to 6:30, up-stairs, in the Freeman building. The public is cordially invited to drop in and have a cup of tea, and examine and buy the various articles displayed, all of which will be for sale. Dolls a specialty.

For genuine kindness and benevolence there are no people who excel the Pickensites. A few days ago it became known in town that there was a case of great suffering in our midst, brought about by that terrible melody, pellagra. Many hearts went out in sympathy and many hands went into pockets for material aid. Even so, "Ye did it unto the least of these."

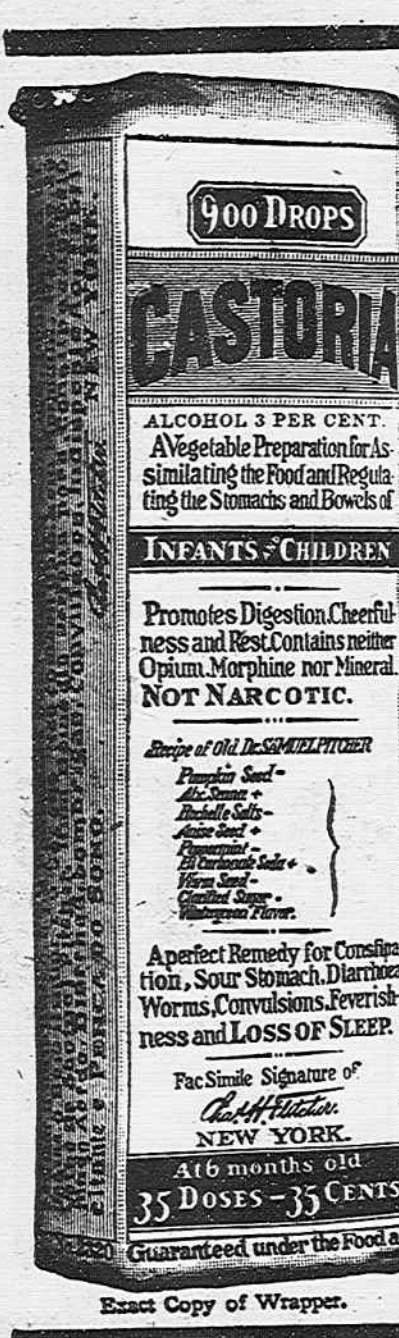

Farmer's Mass Meeting.

The Farmers of Pickens county—I have been requested by O. B. Colquitt, of Texas, to a meeting of the farmers and others interested in cotton-growing and prices to meet at Pickens C. H. Saturday, Dec. 16th, at 11 o'clock a. m., to take some action on the plans suggested by the governors' convention in New Orleans, Oct. 3. Further information given Saturday, and every farmer is urged to be present.

Marriages.

As the holidays approach marriage and given in marriage increase. The festive season will witness the fruitful work of Cupid, and for the next few weeks his arrows will fly thick and fast.

During the past week he brought eight victims to Hy-men's altar.

On the 3d inst. Miss Ida Hester and Mr. Claude Moore were united in the holy bonds at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hester, in this county; Mr. W. R. Dalton, notary public, performing the ceremony.

On the 6th inst. Miss Etta Kelley and Mr. Henry Merck had their hearts and lives bound together with a marriage ceremony performed by Judge Newberry at his office.

On the same day, and by the same officer, Miss Hannah Bright was happily married to Mr. Jere B. Myers, of Franklin, N. C. The bride is a daughter of the late W. W. F. Bright, formerly superintendent of education of this county.

On the 8th the same officer said the words which made Miss Arie Alexander and Mr. James W. Holliday one.

To these happy young people the Sentinel joins their many friends in congratulations and hearty good wishes.

Mr. Jesse Cantrell Shot.

Last Saturday night Mr. Jesse Cantrell was shot and probably fatally wounded by Latham Davenport, colored. The shooting took place at Mr. A. B. Talley's, on Saluda river.

There had been a corn shucking at Mr. Talley's that evening and a number of neighbors were there. After the shucking the negro Davenport became involved in a dispute with a young man named Robinson.

This caused the men in the house to go out into the yard where the disputants were. These two were separated, and the negro was told to behave himself or leave.

He pulled out a pistol and began to back off from the crowd, and at the same time to wave his pistol in the direction of the crowd. In a moment the pistol was discharged and Cantrell fell, the ball striking him in the forehead.

There had been no words between Cantrell and the negro, and there was no provocation for shooting at all.

The negro made his escape, and up to Wednesday morning had not been captured. It is said Mr. Cantrell is fatally wounded.

The Big Store.

Twelve or thirteen years ago this immense plant opened for business in this city. Have they done the business since that time? You know it. The people of the entire community were not slow to recognize the ability of this firm. They were not slow to understand that the very large line of goods carried made possible the satisfying of every want, and that garments of merit could be secured here as well as at any other place in the state, hence the gathering of the people from all quarters.

The manager, Mr. R. E. Bruce, is a gentleman of recognized ability, and because of his manner and methods there has been an advanced movement year after year. Doing business on so large a scale has made it possible for this store to ever travel at the head of the procession. Facts and figures are not needed to prove to you that when at the markets buying this firm can command the very closest figures—and buying right always means selling right.

Central, Route 2.

Business is progressing nicely in this vicinity.

Mr. Henry Y. Lawrence is running a saw mill near his home.

Mr. James Holden, formerly of California, has returned to his old home on Keowee to look after his father's estate.

Miss Pearl Pelfry was married to a Mr. Dickson, Sunday, Dec. 3, at Newry.

Kings school opened Monday, Dec. 4th, with Miss Jessie Chalmers in charge.

Garvin school began the same time with Miss Elma Clayton as principal.

Long Branch school is planning to give an entertainment Friday, Dec. 22 to help raise a fund for an organ for the new church soon to be built here.

The Long Branch people are hauling lumber to build a new Methodist church near the main Central road, between the homes of Mr. Gordon and Mr. Coke Palmer.

Mr. J. R. Morgan is having a grist mill put in to run in connection with his gin at this place. His son Leslie will have charge of it. The public are cordially requested to patronize it.

Miss Bessie Smith and Miss Ethel Lawrence attended the Sunday School Convention at Liberty, as delegates from our church.

Miss Berta Jones, one of the teachers at Six Mile Academy, spent Thanksgiving at home, and attended services at Pleasant Hill church first Sunday. She reports the school to be in a flourishing condition.

Six Mile.

The town of Six Mile is forging to the front at a rapid pace. There are many signs of progress and prosperity among the people of this good community, and all seem to be working with one accord in the advancement and upbuilding of the place.

They are all proud of their academy, and speak in glowing terms of the excellent work and efficient management of the school by the principal, Prof. J. E. Crim, and his assistants. They have only one dormitory at present and it is well filled with young ladies. The dormitory now being used is wholly inadequate to accommodate all the girls who have applied and who would attend the school.

They realize the limited accommodations, and the school is not as large on this account as it would be if they had more room for boarding pupils. But they hope these conditions will be improved in the near future. The school now has an attendance of 120 and they are expecting others with the opening of the new year.

The church is in a prosperous condition under the leadership of Rev. B. F. Murphree. They have a live Sunday school every Sabbath, a Woman's Missionary Society, and a flourishing B. Y. P. U. organization meets every Sunday evening.

Several new houses are now being erected—dwellings and business houses—and on every hand are evidences of push.

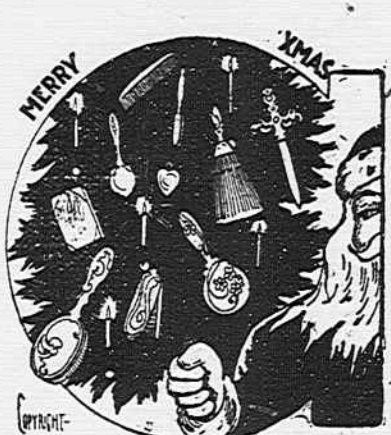

This is one of the finest communities in the county. It numbers among its inhabitants some of the best citizens in the county, and no one should be surprised to see it develop and push to the front.

Once the lines become fixed, they remain even after the eye trouble has been corrected, though softening to some extent by relaxation of the muscles.
